

Diocesan X-Country Meet Set For Fisher Tomorrow

St. John Fisher College will host this year's diocesan cross-country championships, set for Saturday, Nov. 5, at 10:30 a.m. Bob Wafter, also figure to be in the individual scramble.

At least 5 schools will compete in three races over the rolling Fisher terrain, with Aquinas favored to defend its varsity laurels in the feature race at 11:10. The Little Irish have a senior squad that has beaten the best competition in the upstate area, including a decisive victory over county powers Brighton and Webster in the McQuaid Invitational.

Before the varsity runners go at it, there will be freshman and junior varsity races.

Bishop Kearney's Mike Kelly will be the man to beat for individual varsity laurels if his troublesome ankle holds up. Kelly's teammate, Greg Conderacci, the Aquinas duo of Joe Wargo and Dan Holden, and McQuaid's sophomore standout, Trophies will go to an "All-Catholic" varsity five and medals to the top five J.V. and freshman runners. Team trophies will be awarded for each race.