AMAN LEADS BISHOP KEARNEY
TO DIOCESAN X-C TITLE

Bishop Kearney senior Tom Aman took individual honors and led the blue-shirted Kings to their first diocesan varsity championship yesterday at Watkins Glen.

Aman's time of 12:20 over the muddy 2.3-mile hill course at Padua High School earned him the memorial trophy given for the first time in honor of Aquinas 1963 graduate Bob Bossert, who died on naval maneuvers as a midshipman in 1965. Bossert was cross-country and track captain for the Little Irish in his senior year.

Following Aman in Kearney's victory parade were Jeff Eichner(2), Mario D'Errico(3), Jim Maley(5), and Nick Habes(6). The Kings' team total was 17, with McQuaid runner-up at 51.

McQuaid packed 4 men into the top five behind Kearney's Paul Urlacher to capture J.V. ~~champs~~ laurels with 21 points to Kearney's 36.
