MORE CROSS COUNTRY: Rush-Henrietta Sperry swept team honors in the boys' Division 1 and the girls' races in the Haverling Invitational in Bath. Sperry totaled 48 points in boys team standings and amassed 26 points in girls team scoring.

Sperry's Anita Kelly won the girls' race in 15:42 over a 2.7-mile course. Mary Layland of York Central captured the boys' Division 1 race in 13:42, the meet's fastest time.

Scott Bagley of East Rochester won the boys' race in the East High Invitational at Cobbs Hill. Bagley's time over the 2.91-mile course was 14:41.

Canandaigua Academy won the boys' team title with 64 points, and Irondequoit was second with 144. Webster Thomas won the girls' team scoring with 49 points.

Brockport High won the team title in Boys Division 2 of the Genesee Community College Invitational in Batavia. Brockport totaled 45 points to beat out Section 6 powerhouse Clarence Central.

Scott Banner of Brockport finished second to Pat Lehman of Lewiston-Porter of Section 6. Erin McCarthy of Clarence won the girls' Division 1 race and Lynn Fox of Gates-Chili was second.

BOYS' SOCCER: Dennis Cronin scored the winning goal for Bishop Kearney (3-3-3) in a shootout following four quarters and two five-minute overtimes to give the Kings a 4-3 victory over Irondequoit (3-4-2) in the finals of a tournament at Pinegrove Recreation Center. Cronin's shot was the only one either team made in six attempts.

CROSS COUNTRY: Scott Bagley of East Rochester was fifth in the boys' individual race in the New York State High School Federation meet in Saratoga Springs. Bagley finished fifth among 191 runners from schools that didn't send at least five runners, covering the 3.1-mile course in 16:15.

Peter Glavin of McQuaid was seventh in 16:17, Kevin Brewer of Spencerport was 13th in 16:24, Paul Callens of Aquinas was 19th in 16:24 and Chris Will of Gates-Chili finished 31st in 16:41. Craig Schmidt of William Floyd, Section 11, was first in 15:57.

Mark Johnson of Rush-Henrietta Sperry finished 65th out of 226 runners in the boys' team race, in which Sperry placed 29th out of 32 schools.

Anita Kelly of Sperry won the girls' team race in 18:35. Judy Noble of Sperry was 49th and teammates Sandy McNitt and Debbie Long were 57th and 58th out of the 157 runners. Anne Baitsholts of Fairport was eighth and Liz Tabor of Penfield finished 26th in the race for girls competing independently.

McQuaid finished first in a seven-school field in the Jesuit Championship in New York. The Knights, competing without Glavin, their No. 1 runner, totaled 39 points to runner-up St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, which amassed 57. P. K. Brimstein was second, Tom Warth third, Mike Das ninth, Dave Hoak 11th and Paul Dennee 14th.

Sperry, Fairport Favored in AA Cross Country

Rush-Henrietta Sperry and Fairport, separated by a single point in last week's Monroe County championships, are expected to battle again for the Class AA title at the Section 5 boys cross country championships tomorrow at the Sarah Coventry course in Newark.

McQuaid's Peter Glavin is the favorite to win the individual title and makes the defending champion Knights the darkhorse in the team championships.

Defending champ Brockport should be pushed hard by both Canandaigua and Dansville in the Class A race while York and East Rochester are considered the top teams in Class B-C. East Rochester junior sensation Scott Bagley is favored to take individual honors in the B-C race.

The first race begins at 12:30 with the Class AA race set to begin at 2:30.

Aquinas senior Paul Callens won the City-Catholic League's individual cross-country championship last week at Cobbs Hill Park. Finishing in the top ten were: Tom Warth (McQuaid), Mike Testa (Cardinal Mooney), P.K. Brimstein (McQuaid), Mike Das (McQuaid), Pablo Carbola (Aquinas), Rob Stokes (McQuaid), Glen White (Charlotte), Rory Schnurr (Bishop Kearney), and Andy Hamingson (McQuaid).

McQuaid's Peter Glavin won the Loyal Greeman Cross Country Invitational in Binghamton last week over a field of 125 with a course record 15:31. Aquinas' Paul Callens finished sixth.
