section 5 cross country

York Central won its third straight Section 5 Class B-C cross country title yesterday, overcoming East Rochester's 1-2 finish in the Section 5 championships at Stuart Park in Newark.

York finished with 69 points to 113 for East Rochester and 204 for Addison Central. It was the fifth sectional title in six years for York, which earlier this season had its long winning streak in dual meets snapped at 104.

Canandaigua won the Class A Boys' title and Fairport won the Class AA boys' team championship. In the Girls' Class B race, Penn Yan captured first, while Rush-Henrietta Sperry won the Girls' Class A title. / / /

Scott Bagley of East Rochester won the Boys' Class B-C race in 16:24.7, the fastest time of the meet. Teammate Mike Corsen was second over the 5,000-meter course.

But York's balance enabled it to pull out the team title. Sophomore Mark Layland was third, Joe Mulley was eighth, Earl Lubanski was ninth, Larry McMIndes was 21st and Tim Feathers finished 28th.

Dansville, which broke York's long winning streak, had no runners in the top 15. The Mustangs' top runner was Dave Palmer finished, who finished 18th.

Addison's top runner finished 15th. Cuba's Kevin Donovan was 13th and teammate Mike Ryan finished 14th.

Fairport also had Jerry Davis, seventh, and John Jurers, 15th, among the top 15 in the Class AA race. Sperry's top runners were Mark Johnson and Bob Housel, who finished ninth and 10th, respectively.

Peter Warth was McQuaid's other runner in the top 15, coming in 13th.

Lisa Polzinetti of Mynderse Academy won the Girls' B race and Vickie Brown and Desi Burgos of Waterloo were second and third. Jane Wyl-dofski of Palmyra-Macedon was fourth.

Jeff Murrell of New 15:58.

CROSS COUNTRY: East Rochester junior sensation Scott Bagley had the fastest time of the day but the big surprise at the Section 5 championships was Kevin Brewer's victory in the Class AA race. The Spencerport senior upset McQuaid's Peter Glavin, who hadn't lost to a local runner this season.

"He (Glavin) was definitely the guy to beat," said Brewer. "He's run faster times and won some big races this year. I was usually in the top three or four in most of the big invitationals but this is the first time I've ever won one. I know I surprised my parents. They promised me a steak dinner if I won."

Brewer beat Glavin at his own game, by conquering the gruelling hills of the Sarah Coventry course in Newark.

"I worked hard on running the hills all last week in practice," said Brewer. "At the top of a hill about a mile and a half into the race, Peter, (Olympia's) Rick Dean and myself all came together. That's where I took over."

Brewer outlasted Glavin by nine seconds, finishing with a time of 16:30. Bagley won the Class B-C race in 16:24.7 while leading ER to the Class B team title. Fairport won the Class AA team title, led by a fourth place finish by Bruce Lokly and a seventh place finish by Jerry Davis.

Cross Country Title

Aquinas senior Paul Callens ran away from the field to win the City-Catholic League's individual cross country championships yesterday at Cobbs Hill.

Callens won the 3-mile race by nearly 100 yards in a time of 15:56. According to league chairman Bob Bradley, it was one of the fastest times ever run on the course, which was lengthened this year.

McQuaid senior Peter Glavin, regarded as the area's best distance runner, did not compete yesterday, however. Glavin chose to "save himself" for Saturday's Section 5 championships in Newark.

Sophomore Tom Warth, one of four McQuaid runners in the first 10 finishers, placed second behind Callens. Mooney senior Mike Testa was third but the next four finishers were also underclassmen.

McQuaid junior P. K. Brimstein was fourth, followed by three sophomores, Mike Das of McQuaid, Pablo Carballo of Aquinas and Rob Stokes of McQuaid. Rounding out the top 10 were Charlotte's Glen White, Kearney's Rory Schnurr and McQuaid's Andy Hamingson.

In the state cross country

McQuaid's Peter Glavin finished fourth in the fast section of the two-mile run in the Christmas City Invitational meet in Bethlehem, Pa. Glavin's time was 9:48.1 in a field of 18 runners. Andy Kohlbrener of Pearl River (Section 9) won the race in 9:40.9.
