

Stacy Prey

Rachel Hosmer

Jody Dushay

Jennifer Shaver

Erika Schwartz

Kim Trawitz

Rachel Korn

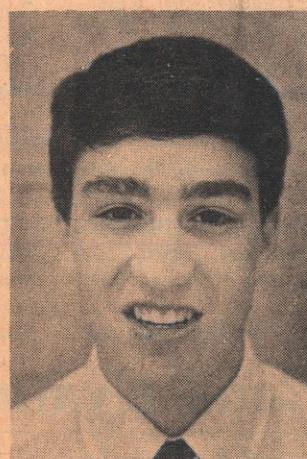

Dave McLaughlin

The 1984 Wolfe Publications Cross-Country All-Stars

Tim Heinle

Phil Levinson

Tris Snyder

Rob Smillie

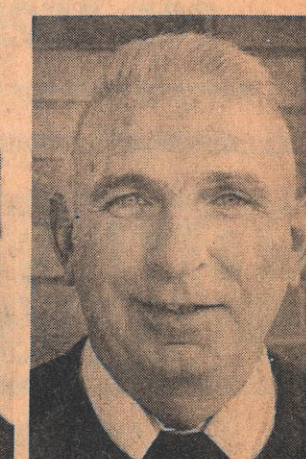

Scott Patterson

Chris Lyboldt

Terry Dutton

Bob Bradley

Brighton and McQuaid High Schools lead the second annual Wolfe Publications All-Star Cross-Country Team.

Brighton placed four girls on the first team and McQuaid placed three boys on the first this Fall.

There were seven girls and seven boys named to the first team along with two coaches of the year. McQuaid's Bob Bradley and Brighton's Dave McLaughlin were selected as the coaches of the year.

Brighton's Stacy Prey and Brighton's Tim Heinle were honored as the runners of the year.

The team was selected from a limited number of high schools covered by Wolfe Publications. Each all-star selection will receive a certificate.

The cross-country all-star selections were made by a panel of area coaches.

First Team

Selected to the boys' first team are: Tim Heinle and Phil Levinson from Brighton; Chris Lyboldt, Scott Patterson, and Rob Smillie from McQuaid; Tris Snyder from Pittsford; and Terry Dutton from Irondequoit.

Named to the girls' first team were: Brighton's Stacy Prey, Rachel Hosmer, Jody Dushay, and Jennifer Shaver; Fairport's Kim Trawitz; Penfield's

Rachel Korn; and Webster's Erika Schwartz.

Second Team

Named to the boys' second team were: Brighton's Paul Hutcheson, Nick Tsilibes, and Brett Yost; McQuaid's Steve Rapp and Dave Warth; Fairport's Brad Solarek; and Pittsford's Tom Ball.

Named to the girls' second team are: Stephanie Walsh and Stephanie Castro from Brighton; Chris Gaylo, Katie Fallon, and Jane Fidler from Fairport; and Holly Manning from Webster.

Third Team

Third team members include: Mark Engerman from Brighton; Mark Clow from Penfield; Brian Mack from McQuaid; John McCoy from Pittsford; George Schell from McQuaid; Mike Schultz from Fairport; and Al Smith from Penfield.

Receiving honorable mention this year are: Richard Bolt and John Cooley from HAC; Dave Boutslier from Webster; Paul Healy from East Rochester; Mike Sauter from Penfield; and C.J. Seiss from Fairport.

The coach of the year for the boys' team is McQuaid's Bob Bradley. The coach of the year for the girls' team is Dave McLaughlin from Brighton.