Awards conclude Section 5 cross country

Section 5 was well-represented by both the boys and girls cross-country teams at the New York State Intersectional championships at Lake Placid Saturday, Nov. 12.

In boys Class A, Section 5 placed second overall in the meet. The Section 5 runners placed especially high overall, with senior John Horkheimer of Pittsford placing first (16:03.1), and Webster's senior Tom Smith finishing a close second (16:03.5). Rob Cook, a senior from Greece Athena, placed fifth with a time of 16:31.2. Senior Nathan Sacco of Penfield placed 26th with a time of 17:07.

Fairport placed third as a team, with senior Eric Schmitt leading the Fairport pack with a 30th-place finish (17:09.5). He was followed by sophomores Nate Ruder and Jeff Werth with times of 17:14.4 and 17:27.9 in 34th and 40th place, respectively. Senior Chris Levy was 57th with a time of 17:45. The third sophomore, Andrew Hartwig, was 71st with a time of 18:02.

In boys Class B, Section 5 placed fifth as a section, with Greg Young of Dansville in 10th place. Dave Dedman of Batavia placed 18th, while Jeff Winden of Churchville finished in 23rd place. Churchville placed eighth of 12 in the team race.

In boys Class C, Section 5 placed fifth, with Jim Uhl of Wayland the top runner in the field. Bill Opet of Bloomfield finished in 17th place. In the team competition, Hammondsport finished 10th of 13 schools.

With the girls, Our Lady of Mercy High School placed fourth overall as a team in Class A. The top Section 5 finishers were sophomore Deresa Walters (East High School) in third place, with a time of 19:23. Rachel Hosmer of Brighton placed fourth with a time of 19:37; Becky Alfieri of Spencerport placed sixth; and Jennifer Metcalfe of Brighton placed 12th.

Mercy's top five finishers were Theresa Mack (20:49); Maggie Whelehan (20:59); Laura Young (21:11); Allison Adin (21:55); and Katie Baumer (22:19) with a 35th, 40th, 66th, and 73rd placement, respectively. Section 5 runners finished fourth as a class.

In Class B, Section 5 placed third as a section with four top-30 finishers: Kelly Wilder of Victor; fifth; Heather Swarts of Dansville; sixth; Theresa Burns of Newark; 8th; and Michelle Gore of Greece Arcadia in 26th. In the team race, Victor placed sixth of 11 schools.

In Class C, Section 5 placed eighth with three top-30 finishers: Kelly Abernathy of Bloomfield, eighth; Emile Lesage of Byron-Bergen, 21st; and Kara Pezzimenti of East Rochester in 23rd place. In the team race, York Central placed eighth of 10 schools.

Tim Jones

In all the boys and girls competition, Section 5 collected 15 medals.

SECTIONAL TEAM

In determining the All-Section 5 cross-country team, the runners are ranked in order from their times at the Section 5 and the intersectional meets. The sectional performance is judged to be twice as important as the intersectionals. After the rank of each runner is determined, the top seven boys and girls are chosen as the All-Section 5 cross-country team.

This year's members for the All-Section 5 boys cross-country team go as follows, in descending order: John Horkheimer, Tom Smith, Rob Cook, Jim Uhl, Nathan Sacco, Eric Schmitt, and Greg Young.

As runner of the year for 1988, John Horkheimer of Pittsford is a returning All-American, who last year placed fifth at Kinney Nationals.

Tom Smith of Webster was on Horkheimer's heels this year. Smith was second to Horkheimer at the state meet by less than a half second and was the only person to defeat him all year, at the Monroe County Coaches Invitational.

Greece Athena's Rob Cook is an All-County selection who is ranked third in the county and fifth in New York state.

Wayland's sectional and state champion, Jim Uhl, this year remained undefeated in all 12 league and invitational meets.

Nathan Sacco of Penfield placed second in the TAC Junior Olympics this past Summer and also was one of the four winners of the Athletic Hall of Fame scholarship.

Fairport's Eric Schmitt is a three-time All-County runner, who, at sectionals this year, placed fifth.

Greg Young, who lives in Dansville, placed 10th in states this year; he was ninth last year.

This year's members of the girls All-Section 5 cross-country team include Deresa Walters, Rachel Hosmer, Becky Alfieri, Jennifer Metcalfe, Kelly Wilder, Theresa Burns, and Kelly Abernathy.

Rick Guido

Deresa Walters, now a runner for East, is the runner of the year for 1987 and 1988, former state champion, All-American, who placed 13th at nationals last year.

She has remained undefeated locally since the seventh grade.

Rachel Hosmer of Brighton is an All-State performer who has received medals at states for five straight years and was only the second person from the Monroe County area to ever have raced at the Kinney Nationals.

Spencerport's Becky Alfieri is a two-time All-State runner.

Brighton's Jennifer Metcalfe is a first-year runner who received a medal at the state championships this year in her first attempt.

Victor's Kelly Wilder has gone to the state championships every year she has run.

Theresa Burns, who has been running for Newark for two years, received her second state medal this year at the state championships.

Kelly Abernathy of Bloomfield placed eighth in states this year.

All of these 14 runners will be awarded a plaque by the Greater Rochester Track Club.

COACH OF THE YEAR

The Coach of the Year Award is given annually to the coaches whose teams win at the Section 5 meet. One award is given to each class, and each school's class rank is determined by the size of the school.

This year, the boys coaches of the year are Rick Guido of (Class AA) Fairport, Ken Switnicki of (Class A) Churchville-Chili, Rich Martello of (Class B) Wayland, and Belinda Mason of (Class C) Hammondsport. The girls coaches of the year are Tim Jones of (Class A) Mercy, Gary Thompson of (Class B) Victor, and Mike Woods of (Class C) York.

Rick Guido of Fairport High School coached cross-country in Class AA for 16 years. During those 16 years, he's had four sectional team championships (two boys teams and two girls teams), but now he only coaches the boys. His athletes have included six individual sectional champions, one individual state champion, two individual eraation champions, one All-American. Guido coached teams to 12 divisional titles. Guido has been coach of the year four times received the state Honor Award in 19. Guido previously coached at Rush-Henri for 13 years.

Ken Switnicki, coach of the Churchville Chili cross-country team, was awarded coach of the year for Class A. This is third year as the cross-country coach.

Switnicki graduated from Xavier High School in New York City and SU Brockport, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English. He came to coaching as a result of wanting to help kids he was always sports- and kid-oriented. Coaching was the best way to combine the two interests. He plans to continue coaching until it is no longer fun.

Rich Martello of Wayland High School won coach of the year for boys Class B. has been the only cross-country coach at Wayland High School. Among his many accomplishments are three Section 5 titles, Livingston County titles, and three individual Section 5 championships. This year had the individual Class C state champion Jim Uhl.

Belinda Mason of Hammondsport High School won the coach of the year for Class C. This is her third year coaching cross-country. During her three years coaching, Mason's teams have come from her first year, when there were enough kids to enter sectionals, to her third year, when her team placed third, to third year, when it became the champion.

Tim Jones from Our Lady of Mercy High School won the Section 5 girls Class Coach of the Year Award. Jones also started the cross-country program at Mercy and now in his third year of coaching there. In his first year, Mercy finished sixth and has won the last two Section 5 championships.

Gary Thompson of Victor High School won the award for girls Class B. Thompson has been coaching for 19 years. During that time, he has won eight Section 5 titles (six straight girls Class Section 5 titles); the 1988 team finished sixth in the states. Gary Thompson has coached Wayne Central and Rush-Henrietta previous years.

Mike Woods, another coach who started the program, began the boys cross-country program at York Central in 1971. His teams have won 10 Section 5 Class C championships. There were 104 meet victories from 1972 to 1980.

The girls cross-country program was started at York in 1983 by Woods. Woods had been selected three times as a Section 5 coach of the year.

Each of these winners receive a plaque from the Greater Rochester Track Club.
