

McQuaid sweeps to state 'A' title

CROSS COUNTRY from 9E

port finished seventh among schools with 161 points.

Erin Davis of Saratoga finished first in 18:18.8.

Julie Donnelly of Waterloo was Section 5's only individual winner

Donnelly, who won the girls' Class B race in the Section 5 championships a week earlier, covered the 3.1-mile course in 19 minutes, 33.2 seconds. Sara Facticeau of Peru was second in 19:43.8.

"Donnelly was wonderful," said Bradley. "She got right out there. Wendy Bensley also was in the top five early. Donnelly caught the girl from Peru (Sarah Facticeau) in the stretch."

Section 5's next best finisher was Bensley, from Honeoye Falls-Lima.

She was 14th in 20:07.8.

Victor finished third in girls' team scoring in Class B with 101 points. Wantagh of Section 8 finished with 47 and Warwick of Section 9 was second with 93.

Section 5 was third with 326 points in scoring by sections. Section 8 (Nassau County on Long Island) finished first with 244 and Section 6 (Buffalo) second with 302.

Georgia Jones, who finished first in the girls' Class BB race in sectionals, led Victor by finishing 17th (20:07.8). Danielle Giusti finished 20th in 20:16.8, followed by Gretchen Welch, 27th, 20:33.4, and Gretchen Ward, 30th, 20:35. Victor's fifth runner, Amy Brenner, was 98th in 22:14.0.

Kate Walker of Williamson finished fourth (19:46.7) and teammate Heather Haupt took fifth (19:51.3) in the girls' C individual race. Haupt was first and Walker second in the girls' CC race in sectionals.

Becky Doktor of Pembroke finished 16th (20:16.8), Stephanie Nearpass of Geneva DeSales 17th (20:17.0) and Leslie Paladino of Cal-edonia-Mumford 18th (20:17.1).

Kate Landau of Tri-Valley won the individual race (19:10.5).
