McQuaid's 1-2-3 wins 200th straight

STAFF REPORTS

McQuaid's 200th straight dual meet cross country victory yesterday, a 16-47 defeat of Aquinas, was paced by a 1-2-3 finish.

Roundup

McQuaid swept the first three spots, led by Joe LaMagna, who covered the 3.1-mile course at Cobbs Hill in a record 16 minutes, 54 seconds. He was followed by Geoff Steenberge in 17:17 and John Chaintreuil in 17:28.

"Each year we have a go for the (course) record day and today was the day," McQuaid head coach Bob Bradley said.

Aquinas was the last team to challenge McQuaid's record when it lost to the Knights by a point two years ago.

"We've had some close calls and we've been lucky a few times," Bradley said.
