Brockport's Gary Post captured the 300-yard dash and brought his 8-lap relay team from behind with a swift anchor leg for the top individual performance in yesterday's Rochester Area Medal meet at the University of Rochester Field House.

In the closest race of the 12-event scholastic program, Marshall's Bill Soeffing nipped East's Ed Hudson in a 5.5 50-yard dash final. Soeffing, the area's leading hurdler, passed up his specialty because of a slight muscle strain.

Aquinas's Dan Ambrose continued to dominate the distance events, winning the mile in 4:32.1, well off his field house mark of 4:28.3.

The winter age-group development program will conclude next Saturday morning at 10:30, followed by the Section V interscholastic meet at 1 P.M.

For Sunday papers

Aquinas senior Dan Ambrose broke his own record for the mile yesterday to highlight a cluster of outstanding performances in the weekly scholastic track and field meet at the University of Rochester field house.

Ambrose won the 17-18 age group event in 4:28.3, over a second below his December mark. A few minutes earlier, his two-mile mark of 9:42.4 received a stiff challenge from Gary Duszynski of St. Joseph's, Buffalo, who won going away in 9:42.8. St. Joe's sprinter John Kropski also narrowly missed a field house mark with a 34.1 clocking for the 300, just three-tenths off the record.

In the younger age groups, Joe Nazaruk of Bishop Turner, Buffalo cracked the 13-14 mark for the 1000 with a 2:37.4.
