McQuaid cracks 2-mile relay mark

Special to the D&C

SYRACUSE — The McQuaid 2-mile relay team set a school and track record, and Rush-Henrietta sophomore Larry Wilson tied a state record in the 60-yard dash to lead area performances in the Grieve Invitational Indoor Track Meet at Syracuse University's Manley Field House.

The McQuaid team of Tom Lott, John Farrell, Tim Lawrence and Tom Horton won the race with a time of eight minutes, three seconds. Lawrence ran a fast 1:58.6 relay leg to lead the Knights.

Wilson finished second to teammate Tom Moore with both runners being clocked in 5.6. The time by Wilson ties the state record for sophomore runners.

The Aquinas one-mile relay team set a school record by winning with a time of 3:35.3. Little Irish runners included Rudy Kearse, Leo Finucane, Doug DoCoursey, and Juan Navarro.
