First, East High's Yauneek Jackson got mad. Then she got better in the 100-meter high hurdles.

"When I started, Charlotte (Nesmith, also of East) was really good," Jackson recalled. "She'd get a lot of compliments. But they passed me by. That would make me sort of mad, and I took my anger out in the hurdles."

"When I first came here I was so scared," she said, "because they had Cassie (Jordan of Pittsford) ranked ahead of me in the 100 and Tracy Watts (of Rush-Henrietta) ahead of me in the 200. It was like, I have to beat them."

- Ken Burke eclipsed the 14-year-old time of Gates-Chili's Bill O'Connell by two-tenths of a second in the 200 by winning in :21.0.

"When I got here I saw it was a nice day with no breeze and I knew it was right," the senior said. "Then when I ran
