

Aquinas in Run-Away Win

Dennis Heizyk, Jim Lane, and Steve Colin each won two events to pace Aquinas over Franklin and Jefferson in a City-Catholic League triangular track meet yesterday at Franklin. Aquinas finished with 104 points to 48 for Franklin and 17 for Jefferson. Heizyk won the long jump in a school record distance of 21 feet, nine inches and the triple jump. Lane took both the low and high hurdles, with Colvin winning the two-mile and the mile runs. Franklin won both the 880-yard relay and the mile relay.

Aquinas won 10 events to six for Franklin.

CARDINAL MOONEY 82, East 54½, MARSHALL 30½ — Chris Charlton and Ken Boddie won two events apiece to pace the Cardinals over East and Marshall at East High.

Charlton won the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles to boost Mooney to victory in their 1st meet of the season. Boddie won both the long jump and the triple jump for the Cardinals.

The Cardinals took nine events to four for East and two for Marshall, with East winning both relay events.

BISHOP KEARNEY 62, MONROE 52½, EDISON 49½ — The Kings edged both Monroe and Edison at Bishop Kearney.

Five King runners won first places while winning both relays. Kevin O'Connor won the pole vault, Craig O'Brien won the discus, and Kent Youngman took the 880-yard run for the Kings. Monroe's Andy Williams and John Curran were both clocked in 55.7 seconds in the 440-yard dash.

MCQUAID 84½, MADISON 80½, CHARLOTTE 2 — Madison won eight events but McQuaid won the meet at Charlotte.

McQuaid has a record of 3-1, with Madison 1-1 and Charlotte 0-2.

Carl Eddington won the 180-yard low hurdles for Madison and finished in a tie with teammate Steve Parker in the 120-yard high hurdles. Calvin
